Preventing Infant and Pediatric Abduction: The Unimaginable Nightmare. 2017 CMS and TJC Compliance Standards

Webinar #T4025

DATE AND TIME

April 4, 2017
9:00 - 11:00 a.m. CT

OVERVIEW

This course will provide information on the Joint Commission and CMS standards of infant and pediatric abduction and how to comply with this set of standards. It will discuss the five main physical, security and other measures health care facilities can take to prevent abductions. The speaker will discuss the revised recommendations from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children on the Guidelines on prevention and response to infant abduction that every hospitals and birthing center should be familiar with. Make sure your facility is up to date on what it should be doing and when. You do not want the unthinkable nightmare of an infant or child abduction to happen at your facility.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Anyone involved in keeping pediatric and infant patients safe, including the CNO, nurse managers, nurses from OB and pediatric nurses, risk managers, patient safety and compliance officers, consumer advocates and nurse educators.

OBJECTIVES

1. Discuss the important components of a good infant and pediatric abduction program including policies and procedures, training of staff and parents, controlling access and development of a critical incident response plan.
2. Describe what information should be communicated to the mother to minimize the risk of abduction.
3. Identify the Joint Commission (TJC) and CMS hospital standards as they relate to infant and pediatric abduction.
