

NHA Leadership Institute Alumni Day

March 1, 2017 | 1:00 - 4:30 p.m.

Hampton Inn
507 Talmadge Street
Kearney, NE

Overview

As a graduate of the NHA Leadership Institute, you represent a unique opportunity to bring expanded collaboration among a prestigious group of health care leaders across Nebraska. Leaders who are making a difference in their hospitals, communities and beyond. To continue your leadership development and networking opportunities, we are pleased to invite you to the 2017 Leadership Institute Alumni Day and also the 2017 Nebraska Leadership Summit.

Many of you attended the statewide leadership summit in 2015 along with alumni from programs sponsored by the Nebraska Bankers Association, Nebraska State Chamber of Commerce, Nebraska Farm Bureau and Nebraska LEAD Program®. These organizations have statewide leadership development programs similar to the NHA's Leadership Institute. A full summit with alumni from all of those five state leadership programs is held bi-annually. During the interim in the even years, each group will have special workshops and programs only for their alumni.

On March 1, 2017, the NHA Leadership Institute Alumni will have a program half-day educational program and on March 2, 2017, Alumni will continue their educational program in the morning at the Holiday Inn Conference Center as part of the Nebraska Leadership Summit, and then transition into the educational sessions of the Summit.

Please view the information on next pages. You have the option of attending the NHA LI Alumni Day program on March 1, the Summit on March 2, or both. Indicate on the enclosed registration form or register online <http://bit.ly/NELeadershipSummit>

Familiar faculty from Bellevue University will lead sessions on highly-ranked topics that you (LI Alumni) indicated on a recent survey. We hope you are able to join us for this opportunity to reconnect with former class members and faculty, network with members of other Leadership Institute classes and participate in some additional in-depth leadership development education.

Programs topics include:

Put Me In, Coach: Advanced Coaching Skills

The first session of the afternoon will kick off an engaged day of discussion and peer interaction. Enhance your ability to confidently communicate, connect, and engage with your team members to maximize overall organizational performance. Participants will experience the power of providing high-quality feedback and the impact it has on performance, and apply the traits of effective coaching to organizational culture. Learners who participate in this session will build effective communication skills and practice a coaching model for enhancing performance.

Practicing the skills in the morning session allows participants to formalize the concepts and make the learning immediately applicable. Furthermore, it sets the stage for the rest of the day where communication across hospitals and across the twelve classes of Leadership Institute participants is essential.

Have No Fear: Change Management is Here

The most dangerous words in business are either "We've always done it that way," or "Everybody else is doing it." You need a model that empowers your organization to better identify changes in the strategic environment and create an action plan for addressing the change. In order to progress as a business and continue to develop programs that best suit the needs of your customers, resources have to be available to grow and adapt. This session will cover the innovative approaches and curiosity needed to take performance to the next level.

More than "best practices," sharing success cases and collaborating across teams is proven to affect significant positive change in business. The "why" of collaboration will be emphasized and participants will be broken into small groups to share current challenges as well as form action plans to begin combating those gaps.

A collaboration between:

Nebraska Leadership Summit

As a graduate of a Nebraska leadership program, you know that leadership is not a position or a title, it is action and example. In the words of Bill Bradley, "Leadership is unlocking people's potential to become better."

For many years, the Nebraska LEAD Program, Nebraska LEAD Alumni Association, Nebraska Farm Bureau, Nebraska Hospital Association, Nebraska Bankers Association, and Nebraska Chamber of Commerce and Industry have all proactively trained emerging leaders through their respective leadership programs. Many of these highly motivated leadership alumni have gone on to assume increasingly important leadership roles within their organizations, companies, communities, state and nation! The more than 2,000 alumni from these leadership programs have proven to have produced strong leaders and that great things are happening in Nebraska.

The Nebraska Leadership Summit offers statewide leadership program graduates the opportunity to reconnect with classmates, make new acquaintances, and learn about trends and topics confronting Nebraska and your industry base.

As a leadership program alumnus, we encourage you to take part in this opportunity to foster new dialogue, discuss creative solutions and develop relationships geared to making Nebraska an even stronger state.

The Nebraska Leadership Summit is made possible through a collaboration between:

Rob Quillen, Inspirational Speaker & Author

Rob Quillen's message is a very positive lesson that he learned from the tragic events of 9-11. Rob talks about how a series of coincidences led him to be sitting next to a perfect stranger on September 10, 2001 on a flight to Newark, NJ, that neither individual was supposed to be on. This led to a conversation, one in which the stranger told Rob a dream that he had for his 15-year-old son. The stranger that was sitting next to Rob on the flight was Jason Dahl, who was the pilot of Flight 93 that crashed into the field in Shanksville, PA, during the terrorists attacks the very next day. Quillen outlines how to make someone's dream come true, and he challenges each and every one in the crowd to think of one person in their life and set out to make their dream come true before it's too late.

4:30 p.m. Adjourn
