

SAVE THE DATE

HYBRID PEDIATRIC PAIN CONFERENCE

FRIDAY, MAY 5, 2023 8:00 A.M.—2:30 P.M.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Healthcare professionals who care for children, including physicians, advanced practice providers, nurses, occupational therapists, physical therapists and mental health practitioners.

PROGRAM PURPOSE

- Examine current pediatric pain topics using lectures and case presentations by interdisciplinary specialists.
- Examine Illustrate current, practical approaches to pediatric pain management for outpatients and inpatients using pharmacological and integrative approaches in conjunction with patient and parent education.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- No cost to attend. Advance registration required.
- Virtual & in-person attendance options available.
- In person attendees, lunch is on your own (not provided).
- 5.5 hours of CME & CNE pending.
- Opiate prescriber education/pharmacology credit pending.

KEYNOTE/GRAND ROUNDS

Racial Disparities in Pain Medicine

Elisha Peterson, MD, MEd

Director, Chronic Pain

Acute Pain Specialist

Anesthesiologist

Assistant Professor of Anesthesiology,

Pain and Perioperative Medicine

Children's National Hospital

George Washington University

OTHER TOPICS INCLUDE

- Delirium, Pain or Agitation?
- Methadone, Dexmedetomidine and Adjunct Therapies
- Nebraska Prescription Drug Monitoring Program
- Caring for the Patient with Acute Pain in the ED
- Use of Cryotherapy and Cryoablation in Surgical Procedures
- Strategies to Support Caregivers of Children in Pain

TO REGISTER, SCAN QR CODE OR VISIT WWW.CHILDRENSOMAHA.ORG/CONTINUINGED