The Future of 501(r) in the New Era Webinar #T4041

DATE AND TIME

May 16, 2017
9:30 - 10:30 a.m. CT

OVERVIEW

This webinar will explore potential alternatives to the Affordable Care Act (ACA) and discuss their effect, if any, on Section 501(r). It will also examine executive orders issued by the President that are designed to eliminate or reduce the regulatory burden imposed on individuals, businesses and other organizations. Finally, this webinar will consider existing IRS enforcement initiatives involving Section 501(r), so that charitable hospitals can develop and implement best practices for compliance.

TARGET AUDIENCE

CFOs, COOs, controllers, revenue cycle and financial services leadership, tax directors, community health improvement/benefit professionals, compliance officers, strategic planners, legal counsel and government affairs staff, and other interested personnel.

OBJECTIVES

- Discuss the implications for Section 501(r) of efforts to repeal and replace the Affordable Care Act (ACA).
- Explain the scope of executive orders designed to reduce or eliminate the regulatory burden imposed on individuals, businesses and other organizations.
- Describe what those executive orders might mean for purposes of Section 501(r) interpretation and enforcement.
- Identify current IRS enforcement activities relating to Section 501(r).
- Develop best practices for complying with Section 501(r).

FACULTY

Travis F. Jackson, Principal
Polsinelli

Travis Jackson, principal with Polsinelli, brings a wealth of experience concerning the tax and governance needs of charitable hospitals and other nonprofit organizations. He has worked with these organizations to develop financial assistance policies, emergency medical care policies and billing and collection policies to comply with Section 501(r). Travis has also assisted charitable hospitals in responding to audits and other investigations by the IRS and state tax authorities. Travis has no real or perceived conflicts of interest that relate to this presentation.
