

Provider-Based Rules: Update for 2018

Webinar #T5004

DATE AND TIME

January 16, 2018
12:30 - 2:00 p.m. CT

OVERVIEW

Hospitals are ever increasingly establishing provider-based clinics of all types. While hospitals can enjoy increased revenues from provider-based clinics, compliance with all the rules and regulations is challenging. The provider-based rule (PBR) is complex and there are definite ambiguities. Recent changes in the supervisory requirements for provider-based operations have created confusion and new compliance challenges. Additionally, with Section 603 of the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2015, there is movement to change the rules and regulations relative to reimbursement for provider-based clinics.

In this workshop the overall purpose and function of the provider-based rule is addressed as well as critical information concerning physician supervisory changes along with a discussion of the future of provider-based clinics. Particular attention is made to rule changes as implemented by CMS relative to Section 603 of BBA 2015 and further changes made by Section 16001 of the 21st Century Cures Act.

OBJECTIVES

1. Identify the criteria that must be achieved for clinics to be recognized as provider-based.
2. Discuss the current status of changes in payment to off-campus provider-based clinics as provided through Section 603 of the BBA 2015.
3. Give examples of changes made by the 21st Century Cures Act.
4. Describe critical physician supervisory rule changes.
5. Discuss the attestation and request for determination processes.
6. Analyze the relationship of PBR relative to the Conditions for Payment, Conditions of Participation and gaining billing privileges.
7. Discuss the regulatory pressures for reducing reimbursement for provider-based clinics.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This session is recommended for all personnel involved with provider-based clinic and/or clinical operations, compliance personnel, and coding and billing personnel. Nursing staff and interested physicians are also encouraged to attend.
